Plastic Soup Discussion evening - CognAC - 18:00 - 21:00 - SP.A.00.09

One of the charities of this years RAG-week is the Plastic Soup Foundation. On a yearly basis, tons of plastic disappears into the ocean. The Plastic Ocean is a documentary made by Craig Leeson, in which they discuss the pollution of the ocean by plastic waste.. Together with Tanya Streeter, Craig travels to more than twenty different locations all over the world to research the fragile state of our oceans. They discover the alarming reality of the plastic pollution and show working solutions.

Join us on Wednesday the 20th of February to watch the showing of this documentary and participate in the discussion afterwards to get a greater insight about the plastic soup and possible solutions.
